DEDICATION

For his deep concern for our welfare and success, for the guidance and encouragement he sincerely and readily rendered, for his jocular nature and moments of stern discipline, and most of all because we appreciate him more than words can tell, we, the Senior Class of 1953, gratefully dedicate this, the third edition of the Blue Jay, to our leader and friend,

CLASS HISTORY

After eight years of warming up, getting acquainted with each other, and losing and gaining players, we were ready for the big game. The starting whistle blew on September 3, 1949, and seventy-seven excited greenhorns took the field. In the beginning minutes of the first period, we dressed up in funny costumes and entertained the upper classmen on what they called Initiation Day. Our coaches, "Moe" Fuller and Mary Speer, helped us bear the humiliation and encouraged us to become a hard and steady-working team—which we think we were! Five or more of our prospective female cagers made their debut on the high school varsity, and one of our members began her four-year cheering career. We went on field trips, had socials, joined clubs, and played volleyball until we let the end of the quarter slip up on us. Our three months' intermission came as a pleasant surprise, nevertheless.

When we returned after our rest, we found that seventeen of our players had turned in their suits. We don't doubt that they had good reasons, but they left hard-to-fill places. Captain Bobby Cheek, and assistants Wesley Holcomb, Bettye Minnish, Jo Smitherman, and Myrtle Macemore, along with our new coaches Ola Hendren and Jess Hutchinson, piloted us into a successful second quarter, not only in studies, but also in sports. Again in our sophomore year, as in our freshman year, the chosen sextet were the grade tournament champions. As before, there were hay rides, wiener roasts, and many more school activities. May the twenty-second, 1951, was a great day in the life of every Jonesville student; the first edition of THE BLUE JAY arrived! The class of '51 introduced to the school a new thing which will be continued and cherished through the years. And there's the whistle that marks the half-time period!

Another three months' period elapsed and forty-nine players were ready for the third quarter under the excellent coaching of Mary Speer and Jane Holcomb. As is the custom, it was our year to publish the JONESVILLE HI BUGLE. The staff was made up of willing and co-operative students who completed four editions of school news. This period was filled with parties, conventions, music festivals, banquets, and plays. The junior play was a humorous presentation entitled "The Adorable Imp," the money collected from the play went to the most exciting event of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet! April 18, 1952, 8:00 P.M. was the exact time for the juniors to entertain the seniors at the Gilvin Roth YMCA. The theme "Mother Goose" was carried out in decorations, songs, speeches, and in the menu, Dr. Mark Depp of Winston-Salem was the guest speaker. Another annual formal was the Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by the Elkin-Jonesville Inter-Club Council. It, too, was held at the Gilvin Roth YMCA on February 16, 1952. This was a successful year in the sports world as the Blue Jettes were the Yadkin Valley champs and the Blue Jays were runners-up. We were especially proud of our cheerleaders this year as they made their debut in their new uniforms. As the buzzer sounds they are always ready to cheer their Alma Mater to victory.

We were ready for the final quarter as dignified seniors. At last we had reached the goal for which we had been striving for eleven long years! We remembered when we were humiliated in the first quarter and decided to get revenge on our under-classmen by dressing them as "mother.goose" characters on Initiation Day. But the freshmen were rewarded for their good sportmanship when the seniors gave them a party-square dance combination in the Jonesville gym. Again sports should be mentioned as the football team went undefeated for the first time in history. As the quarter progressed, the annual staff spent their time in preparing the publication of the third edition of THE BLUE JAY. As seniors of the class of '53 we are looking forward to our planned Washington trip and especially to the time the final whistle is blown and we march down the aisle to receive our hard-earned diplomas.

As we look over the past years we realize this was the greatest game we ever played.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten short years have passed and I have been working hard as a five-star general in the United States Army. I received a furlough recently and decided to look up my old schoolmates. This is how I found them:

Bobby Cheek and Myrtle Macemore are the parents of six children. Bobby is earning a living by delivering groceries for the Jonesville grocery. Betty Joyner is still wearing that ring and is as single as ever. She still has her position at Belks' Department Store. Gayle Burch is playing professional football for the Washington Redskins. I found Dotte Rose and Shirley Cheek, now chief cheerleaders for the Redskins, cheering him on.

Ted Myers is in the bootlegging business and helping to keep up the Lucky Break Pool Room where Barbara Brown is chief cook and bottle-washer. Anna Faye Rose is crushing rocks for her father and was recently featured on a nation-wide TV program as the only female rock-crusher in the world. Joe Hutchins is on television weekly now in connection with the great evangelistic campaigns he is carrying on throughout the country.

Peggy Wilmoth is raising tobacco on her husband's farm since he entered politics. Peggy Moody is still looking for a husband, but Barbara Adams was a little more successful and is now doing a good job of housekeeping for her better half. Jean Creed and Frances Howard are still waiting for their husbands to retire from the armed forces, and June Wells is living in Lenoir with her husband who is principal there. Bill Stroud has finally landed her a man, too, and is making a good-cooking wife.

Little Mary Cheek joined the WACS after graduation and is now a tough, top-sergeant. Frankie Renegar is teaching drivers' training in a New York City high school, and her roommate, Kelly Vestal is teaching dramatics and art. Mozelle Finney has turned out to be a great opera singer and recently appeared with Jimmy Rhyne on his weekly TV comedy hour.

Lola Spainhour is now the boss-lady at Cato's and Louise Vestal is head nurse at the Hugh Chatham Hospital. Shirley Cochran is working in Combs' Hatchery—she always did cackle a lot. Jo Smitherman is General Secretary of the Gilvin Roth YMCA in Elkin and her cohort, Kay Price, three-time All-American, is playing basketball for the Hanes Hosiery girls. Jimmy Vestal is driving a truck for the state of North Carolina.

Back at JHS, I found Kay Madison taking over her father's job as elementary school principal, Bettye Minish teaching the fifth grade and Jimmy Pardue head basketball coach. Claudette Nixon is dietitian for the Jonesville lunch room (she doesn't have potatoes every day), and Jim Lashmit is helping his wife with her school-teaching.

Shirley Pardue is a telephone operator for the new Jonesville telephone system, and Wesley Holcomb is still stirring milk shakes for Jack Chambers. I found Lee Colbert raising Hereford cattle and heard that Cora Neville and her husband had settled down in North Sparta and were busy raising little Nevilles. Eddie Longworth is now service manager for the Yadkin Auto Sales and is still the gayest bachelor in town. Vernon Collins is earning a living for his wife and nine children; he takes them each week to the Arlington Skating Rink where his old school-mate, Betty Ann Shore, is manager. Ruth Casstevens is living with her husband in Fort Bragg, and I heard that Billy Ray Benton had turned out to be a great singer for the grand old opry and that he more than fills the shoes of Ernest Tubbs.

David Combs is now a secretary to our old friend Mr. Walser, and when, for old times' sake, I dropped in at the Minute Grill, I found, as I had expected, that the new manager and head waitress was none other than Sammie Eskridge.
